RRB ALP Cut off 2024 - Overview

The term "cut off" signifies the minimum score or threshold required for a candidate to advance to the next stage of selection or pass an exam. It acts as a clear boundary, separating candidates who meet the required standards from those who do not. Cut-off scores can vary based on exam difficulty, available positions, and other relevant factors. Candidates who exceed the cut-off are typically considered for further rounds or pass the exam.
