In this blog, you'll uncover detailed insights into how each section is evaluated, the importance of negative marking, and strategic tips to enhance your performance. Let's dive in and decode the marking scheme to set you on the path to success!

RRB ALP Marking Scheme

This RRB ALP Marking Scheme section is crucial for understanding how the RRB ALP Marking Scheme will be implemented in the RRB ALP Recruitment Exam 2024. It's essential to review this RRB ALP Marking Scheme section thoroughly while preparing for the exam.

RRB ALP Marking Scheme for CBT Stage-1:

- The first stage is qualifying in nature. This means that the final merit list will not include the scores earned.
- The paper consists of 75 objective-type multiple choice questions and you will have 60 minutes to complete CBT 1.
- Each question carries 1 mark, resulting in a total score of 75.
- There is a negative marking of $\frac{1}{3}$ for each incorrect answer.

RRB ALP Marking Scheme for CBT Stage-2:

- Candidates who meet the cutoff marks in the first round are called for the second stage of CBT.
- This stage consists of two parts: A and B.
- Part A comprises 100 questions.
- Part B consists of 75 questions.
- Similar to Stage 1, there is a negative marking of $\frac{1}{3}$ for each incorrect answer in CBT 2.

RRB ALP Marking Scheme for CBAT:

- Clearing each section of the CBAT separately is mandatory to qualify.
- The CBAT will be available only in English and Hindi, and there will be no negative marking.
- To qualify, you must secure a minimum score of 42 marks in each section of the CBAT.

Understanding the RRB ALP Marking Scheme is essential for exam preparation as it will help you strategize your approach and minimize errors during the exam.

RRB ALP Exam Pattern 2024

Understanding the exam pattern is crucial as it acts as a guide for your study strategy, providing valuable insights into question distribution and structure. This knowledge empowers you to prepare more effectively and confidently for the RRB ALP exam.
