The RRB Group D CBT consists of four subjects. The duration of the examination is 90 minutes, with an extended 120-minute duration for eligible PwBD candidates accompanied by a Scribe. The exam will feature a total of 100 questions, with 1 mark awarded for each correct answer. Negative marking will apply, with a deduction of 1/3 mark for each incorrect response. Now that you have a thorough understanding of the CBT, let's move on to the next stage of the RRB Group D Exam Pattern 2025 – the Physical Efficiency Test (PET).

RRB Group D Exam Pattern 2025 - Physical Efficiency Test

Based on the merit of candidates in the CBT, candidates will be called for the PET in a ratio of three times the total community-wise vacancies for the posts notified by the RRBs/RRCs. However, the Railways reserve the right to adjust this ratio as needed to ensure an adequate and reasonable number of candidates for all the notified posts. Passing the Physical Efficiency Test (PET) is mandatory and will be qualifying in nature. The criteria for PET are as follows:
